WHAT'S THE TROUBLE? The heart of the heating and ventilation system, mainly the calibration of ventilation awaits checking.

THINGS TO BE DONE. These boxes contain the furniture, desks and chairs, to be placed in classrooms by Feb. 5 as per word of Dr. Roens.

'Salty' Selects Three Locals

Senator Leverett Saltonstall announced his selections for possible appointment to the service academies for the entering class of 1962.

Among the 11 boys competing for the U.S. Air Force Academy are Kenneth, Garrity, Dennis M. Nolan and Frank Kasparian, all of Arlington. Garrity is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Garrity, 63 Brattle st., and a senior at AHS. He is a member of the Golf team and Drama club. Garrity is also taking academically-talented accelerated courses.

Nolan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nolan, 10 Indian Hill rd., and a senior at AHS. He is treasurer of the Dramatic club, active in outdoor track activities and Drum Major of the high school marching band. Nolan has spent two summers as an orderly for the Officers' Quarters of the 253rd Communications

Arlington School Committee voted to utilize Federal funds to send two teams of a principal and four teachers to Harvard Summer school and also raised teacher's minimum salaries, at the meeting, Tuesday night.

The raise in salaries of the teachers is from $4472 to $4600 for September of 1962. This would equal the corresponding pay scales of the schools in this immediate vicinity.

Funds of $5000 are to be used for in-service training at Harvard for the teams. Federal funds in the amount of $2702 are also to be used to purchase a Grand piano for Lowe Auditorium and the Music dept.

A full house of spectators is expected tonight in the Industrial Arts school library when the Stratton School Building committee meets.

On the agenda is Sup't of Schools Bert Roens' urgent demand that the building be opened on Feb. 5.

"The situation is intolerable and I just can't stand it any longer", Dr. Roens told the Advocate this week.

He called the morale of both teachers and pupils "at low ebb".

The beautiful building off Pheasant ave. was to have been ready for school opening in September.

Then the date was pushed back to Thanksgiving. (Continued on Page 13)

Youth Council Seeks Funds For Expansion

Mrs. Kenneth Spengler appeared before the Board, Monday night, and presented the aims of the Youth Council and a query to the Board of Selectmen on what could be done legally to get some financial aid for their project.

Mrs. Spengler stated that the Council wanted to get an Article in the warrant for the Town Meeting. She (Continued on Page 13)

Local Authority Donates $6336

For the eleventh consecutive year, the Arlington Housing Authority has made a payment to the Town, in lieu of taxes.

The Housing Authority which is not taxed, since 1951 has made payments on its own volition.

This year the Authority was able to give the Town $6336, which is the largest amount that the State will permit for a Housing Authority of this size.

This amount has been achieved for about the last six years. This unwritten obligation is paid at the end of the year and may be lower than the limit allowed.

However, since its conception in 1951, the Arlington Housing Authority has given the maximum.

MRS. GEORGE Eliopoulos reported her $20 gold wedding ring stolen.

COLLINS
CORNER

It was significant that the George Carens Memorial Mile at the Knights of Columbus Track meet last Saturday night should be so named, as his Dad was the first Grand Knight of the Arlington K. of C.

Many fine tributes were written about George, who died last week. His column 'The Pulse' appeared in the Boston Transcript for many years, and when it closed its doors he wrote for the Boston Traveler.

A little over a year ago his brother Tom passed away, both were products of Arlington schools. Tom Carens graduated from Arlington High, and at the graduation exercises in the Old Town Hall, the class prophesy named him as Arlington's first mayor.

So he went to work for the Boston Herald, and after a few years was the political correspondent at the State House. He later moved up, and for 14 years lived in Washington as the Herald's Political Reporter. From there he became Public Relations Man in Boston for the New England Power Co., and finally was elected vice president of the Boston Edison Co.

He was a brilliant writer, and speaker, and had (Continued on Page 13)

Talks On Native Land

At the regular Library staff meeting recently, a talk was given by Antonio Estevo Allgayer of Erexim, Brazil, who spoke about his country.

He was asked questions as to how individuals in the United States might best express their goodwill towards the people of Brazil, and in reply he indicated that books in English for children would be very welcome.

Several members of the staff as individuals expressed an interest in seeing what could be done to raise funds for this purpose and the hope that some of the public would like to cooperate.

Allgayer said that he could distribute books to schools as gifts from the United States.

Elements of unity in Brazil, he said, could be traced to the history of his country, which after settlement by Portugal had ports closed to trade with other countries until early in the nineteenth century and was isolated culturally and economically until that time.

This resulted in a common language, Portuguese, and influenced the prevalence of one religion, literature, and pretty much the same customs.

Another unifying factor is racial. The "black man" is fast disappearing through integration and intermarriage. Out of the mixture of European, African, and Indian strains, a new man has emerged with the "adventurous spirit of the Portuguese, the remarkable patience and capacity for work of the negro, and the poetic insight of the Indians."

In regard to communist influences in his country, Allgayer said, "You send us food. Red China sends us booklets." He went on to say that booklets are sometimes more effective. Although the real aid and services of the United States are much needed in a country which is poor and suffering under inflation and wide although decreasing illiteracy. Mr. Allgayer emphasized the importance of exporting a true picture of our country.

"Unfortunately, the image reaching Brazil is often distorted by poor movies which convey an impression of deteriorating home life and morals here. Good books and other high quality and accurate information are much needed in the battle for mens minds between the iron curtain and free countries."

SALES UP
Ford Motor Company's 309 Ford dealers throughout New England accounted for approximately 30,000 retail passenger car and truck sales last year, an increase of about eight percent over 1960. Richard S. Boutelle, Boston district sales manager, Ford Division, has announced.

Boutelle said that 1961 N.E. sales of Falcon, Galaxie and Thunderbird models and Ford trucks represented an estimated retail value of $214,620,000.

The district sales office located in Natick, Mass., employed 73 persons last year with a payroll amounting to $585,000.

CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN

John W. Bullock, candidate for the office of Selectman in the forthcoming town election March 5, announces the selection of Attorney John J. Bilafer of 58 Cutter Hill rd. as his campaign chairman.

Attorney Bilafer, a lifelong resident of the town, attended Arlington public schools New Preparatory school and is a graduate of Harvard College and Boston College Law school.

Predicting a dynamic campaign Attorney Bilafer stated, "plans are currently being formulated to conduct a vigorous campaign on a precinct level. Mr. Bullock wishes to personally acquaint as many of the voters as he is able with his 'Program for Progress'."

"The Town of Arlington annually spends between nine and ten million dollars to provide its citizens with necessary services", Bilafer continued.

"To understand and be able to cope with problems of a corporation of this size requires the talents of an experienced businessman."

The people of Arlington need a man like John Bullock as the Selectman — a man who possesses a successful business background; a man who possesses practical experience in the operation of a highly complex corporation."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
Conflicting demands of everyday living can be resolved through spiritual understanding of God as divine Life.

This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Life" which is to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections from the Bible will include this verse from Psalm 40: "I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read (p. 184): "Truth, Life, and Love are the only legitimate and eternal demands on man, and they are spiritual lawgivers, enforcing obedience through divine statutes."

The Golden Text is from John (17): "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

Officers Injured Aiding In Crash

A truck plowing into the rear end of a Pontiac sedan caused some injury to the driver of the sedan and injuries to two police officers who were assisting on the scene.

The injuries were not serious. Only person to go to the hospital was Leonard W. Christmas of Roxbury. He was reported in good condition after spending the night in the hospital.

The Pontiac was stopped for a red light on Mass. ave. at Medford st. The truck drove in the rear end of the car.

Gas spilled over the street and had to be watered down by firemen. The car was hauled away by a tow truck.

Two officers suffered minor injuries, shipping at the scene.

School Lunch Week Proclaimed By Governor

SIGNING THE PROCLAMATION designating this as School Lunch week is Gov. John Volpe. Watching (l to r) are Owen B. Kiernan, comm. of Education, Mrs. Gladys Burbank, chairman of school lunch week, Mrs. Dorothy Callahan, pres. of Mass. School Food Service Assn., and John C. Stalker, director of school lunch programs.

Governor John Volpe has proclaimed this week as School Lunch Week in Massachusetts. The purpose of the occasion is to emphasize the part that the school lunch arrangements are playing in President Kennedy's physical fitness program for youth across the nation.

In Arlington, the officers of the PTA are visiting Junior High East to watch the lunch system in action and partake themselves at their own expense.

Many parents do not realize what their children gets for lunch at school. On Tuesday of this week, for example, the children had a choice of baked chicken with cranberry sauce, green peas, mashed potato and bread and butter or an egg salad roll with tomato salad and potato chips. With either lunch went a half pint of milk and a dish of cherry cobbler for dessert. Could you do as well at home for 25 cents a meal?

Always there is a choice of two main dishes in the Arlington school cafeterias, with the additional choice of soup, salad and sandwiches for those who prefer them on any given day. These are not part of the regular school lunch.

Lest you wonder how such meals can be served for 25 cents, it should be pointed out that the cafeterias are run on a non-profit basis, and in addition the town is subsidized to the extent of nine cents per meal served by the state and federal governments, and in addition the schools are able to obtain surplus foods from the government for little or no expense.

Among the products supplied by the government from surplus are butter, lard, flour, dried eggs, dried milk, and occasionally hamburger, turkeys and chickens.

The state and federal governments set strict standards as to what must be served for a class A lunch in order to qualify for the subsidy mentioned. Each meal must be planned so as to include: (1) two ounces cooked of lean meat, poultry or fish; or two ounces of cheese; or one egg; or one-half cup of cooked dry beans or dry peas; or four tablespoons of peanut butter; or an equivalent combination of these. (2) three-quarters of a cup of fruit or vegetables; (3) one slice of enriched bread; (4) two teaspoons of butter or enriched margarine; (5) a half pint of whole unflavored milk; and (6) adequate servings of vitamin C rich food daily and vitamin A rich food twice a week.

To provide lunches for 2000 children daily and still keep careful watch to meet the requirements for the government help is no mean task, but it is carefully done by Miss Florence Forsythe and a capable staff of cafeteria workers in the three schools.

Board Tables
Ad Proposal

Action on the proposed erection of an advertising sign requested by the Buss brothers in Arlington Hts. was tabled at the Selectmen meeting Monday night.

Previously, the request had been turned down by the Selectmen because it violated Town by-laws which state that such a sign cannot be placed within 50 feet of a public way or within 400 feet of a playground.

Chairman Parker further presented the objections of the Board, stating that Arlington does not have package stores which the sign will advertise.

The Board rejected the plea, the first time around, but the Outdoor Advertising Authority, a state agency, ruled that the sign could be erected. The Board wrote to the Agency but did not receive the courtesy of a reply.

The Board chairman also said that the Selectmen have opposed all previous billboards and have been over-ridden.

This sign will be braced on beams and will rise over Collins' garage in the Heights. It will be owned by Mr. Collins and leased to the Buss brothers.

The Buss brothers showed the Selectmen a new copy of the sign that had been turned down and stated that they are now seeking a building permit for the structure.

Although their store is located in Lexington, the Buss brothers wish the sign in Arlington for most of their business is done with Arlington residents.

Historic Stand For The Best

The latest proposal in solving the Town's 9th graders — by a wing at the rear of the A.H.S. certainly is more logical than an addition running along Schouler court, even though the cost would be slightly higher.

First, the latter would spoil the present, broad-front appearance. Second, the outpouring of pupils directly onto Massachusetts avenue at closing time would be almost unthinkable, traffic-wise. In the third place, pupils in the wing at the rear, along Mill Brook drive, would be closer to the common facilities.

These include the huge Lowe auditorium, the Little Theater room, the various shops for boys and the home economics section for girls. Too, while the new wing will have its own cafeteria, the actual cooking and main preparation will be done in now existing, nearby kitchen, as we understand it. Quite probably the present three-period lunch schedule would be brought back to two.

To many who are graduates of little, old Red School house, the prospect of a 3,000 pupil high school seems gargantuan. However, we were impressed at the recent meeting of the School and Survey committees with the supreme confidence shown by the department's top educators that the plan would work well.

At a previous meeting, it had been stated that the "ideal" would be the erection of a new Junior High North but would cost over a million dollars more. At this last confab, this "ideal" idea appeared to be forgotten — that the A.H.S. wing at the rear would be more than just satisfactory.

The new proposal of location appears, to have dissolved nearly all opposition. At least none was expressed. Also, impressive is the fact that the two committees voted to act jointly at the Town Meeting.

The only other alternative would be a permanent, two-platoon system, which would be unthinkable in this era of importance of better education and this Town's intrinsic ability to pay and its historic stand for the best.

Soon To Be Licked

For the first time in the history of the US Post Office it looks as if the Department will be compensated for the raft of non-postal jobs it has been doing for free for nigh onto 200 years!

These tasks presently include keeping track of three million registered aliens, posting those notices and portraits of characters the FBI is looking for; distributing census forms every ten years, income tax forms every year; selling Government savings bonds, getting out weather reports and planting tips to farmers, conducting the wildlife and migratory bird census, Civil Service exams — and now those for the Peace Corps. The post office also looks after the janitor work for other Federal departments.

The White House has now agreed that the Treasury should pay the Department about $250 million for its special services — which will ease that mounting deficit but still leave the P.O. about $600 million in the red for the current fiscal year. This decision, however, is expected to break the deadlock between the House and Senate over the price of postage stamps and shift about $450 million of the remaining deficit onto the backs of the nation's pen-pals.

In all probability, we shall soon be paying five cents an ounce on letter mail and eight cents for airmail along with increases in the various other classes. These are the increases asked in a bill reported out by the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service last session, but action has been stalled in the Senate Committee because Olin D. Johnston was unwilling to consider these increases until allowance had been made for the non-postal chores. Now that the Senator has made his point, the Committee will undoubtedly endorse the House Committee's recommendations and you'll be licking new-type stamps again before you know it.

Paying more for stamps isn't going to reduce the cost of running the post office. Whether the deficit is large or small, the money will come as always from the pants pockets of the taxpayers. But, for years, the cry of the Postmaster General has been that his Department should be run on a business basis. If the new rates accomplish this, they will be well worth the money.

That Man About Town
By MAT

Well, Bill Barnstead has taken the deep and has jumped in the Selectman's pool — as we predicted last week.

Many feel he has the best shot. They point to his potential vote gathering as head of the Republican Town Committee — particularly with Bullock, Campbell, Kent and Rawson tugging at each other.

No one can be sure, however. Obviously, the winner is going to be the man who will pull the most independent (and intelligent) votes. And they outnumber both D's and R's in this town by a wide margin.

Out for Assessor is Robert B. Walsh. Once again he is challenging incumbent Walter S. Cooleedge Jr. In 1959, he gave Cooleedge quite a go but lost ground steadily as the returns came in — Cooleedge 7318, Walsh 6037.

Walsh won Precincts 5, 7 and 14B (his home area). Strangely enough they tied in Precs. 1 and 2. Walsh will probably do even better this year. He is more widely known through his efforts on the large, sprawling Youth Council. On the other hand "Buzz" Cooleedge will and can work harder in counter-attack.

Both will have to answer that juicy question — what about 100% assessments?

The latest in some quarters now has it that Bob Porcous will not run for Moderator. He'd like to but some have advised against taking on Larry Corcoran — a pretty good vote-getter.

Back in '56, Corcoran edged John Stanton by 500 votes and John had worked his brains out.

The three incumbents — Brown, Daily and Morine — are re-running. There was some doubt about Dr. Daily but not the others. Looks like Morine could beat, some day, M. Norcross Stratton's record.

UNIVERSALIST WOMEN
Jan. 15, the Afternoon Group of the Arlington Ass'n of Universalist Women met at the home of Mrs. Rupert Dutton.

After reports, the president, Miss Judith Winn, presented Rev. Guy Meyer, whose subject was "New Year Thoughts". Hostesses for the social hour were Miss Edith Winn and Mrs. Andrew Moore. Pourers were Mrs. Emil Erlandson and Mrs. Arthur Wyman.

DIVIDEND INCREASE
The Directors of the Arlington Co-operative bank this week voted to pay a regular quarterly dividend on all of its savings accounts at the rate of 4% per annum.

This represents an increase of 1/2% per annum on the savings share accounts which will place that savings program on the same basis as the serial share and paid-up share accounts which were previously on a 4% basis.

Wednesday morning the glass indicated as low as 16 below zero. It was the snap of the season, so far, and we hope there will be no more like it.

With advantages second to no other town, Arlington still moves slowly in the matter of growth. We believe the trouble lies in the wealthy and influential in our midst, who, as a class, seem indifferent to all this matter; that if all or only a few of these would form some sort of a business combination, the best of good results would come to them and the town would be an immense gainer. Why not originate a village improvement society on a permanent basis? Who will set the ball in motion?

The following is from the Boston Post: In the will of Judge Parmenter, a resident of Arlington, gifts amounting to $17,000 were left to institutions and his book of collections bequeathed to the Robbins Library. The Arlington Historical Society was left $5,000 and $2,000 each to Symmes Hospital, Visiting Nurses, Sachem Council, Unitarian Pension Society, First Congregational Second Parish of Arlington and the Club of Odd Volumes.

We hear that the Town will be requested to set up a committee to study a plan which actually cuts taxes to home-owners. This is done by attracting new businesses to a town by the process of making the municipal tax rate only half of the tax rate on the land. It has been working in Pennsylvania since 1914. In years to come, this can be a boon to tax payers. We hope the committee will become a reality.

One Year Ago This Week
Plans to take any action in time for the 1961 warrant regarding the Railroad ave. section were abandoned by the Selectmen this week. It was thought advisable to wait until the entire "package" could be done properly than to do a small part of it now.

Fires Mar Home On Addison St.
Two fires, one, an inferno that burned most of a room, the other a window scorcher, struck 8 Addison St., Monday.
The first fire, at 5:48 p.m., scarred the walls, floor and ceiling of the front room. Chief Egan blamed the source of the fire to painting rags.
He stated that the people were probably painting and the rags were lying in the open. Spontaneous ignition of these rags is believed to be the cause of the fire.
Two hours later, at 7:24, a second fire was reported at the same address. Firemen rushed to the scene and held the fire to a scorching of a window and burning of the area surrounding the window.
A cigarette, that was left burning, fell from an ashtray in the bedroom and started the fire, said Fire Chief Egan. It was an accident.
The occupants at the time of the first fire were located in the house but were out at the time of the second alarm.

"No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a man, or of thy friends of thine own were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind. And therefore, never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee." — John Donne.

Compared with December, 1960, the December, 1961, food at home index was down 1.2% with all other index components registering higher levels: apparel up 0.9%; housing 1.9%; fuel and light 2.8%; and sundries 3.2%.

[CORRESPONDENCE]

To the editor,

Thank you for your excellent article about the League of Women Voters' unit meetings in December when our subject was the United States' international trade policy. You may be interested to know that we met with Congress Bradford Morse last week and told him the outcome of our discussion.

There was general agreement that the Reciprocal Trade Act should be extended for at least four years. The League of Women Voters favors a liberal trade policy for political as well as economic reasons. While increasing imports will cause trouble to some industries, on balance we stand to gain from expanded trade and have a good opportunity of increasing our exports.

Major discussion centered around the question of assistance to industries who are being hurt by import competition. We agreed that jobless workers need help in the form of unemployment compensation, re-training, assistance in moving, etc. The majority also felt that loans and tax incentives to help endangered industries re-tool or modernize are desirable so long as this help is temporary.

We also talked about our trade relationships with the under-developed countries and concluded that if such a country gives tariff protection to infant industries, we do no need to retaliate by raising our own tariffs. There was agreement that each such case should be studied separately to ascertain if eventually the new industry can become competitive.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Egons Tons
Mrs. I. W. Stephens

COMMUNITY DATES

"The Community Calendar, drawn up this fall by the Robbins Library, has already been useful in supplying information," said Miss Judith E. Stromdahl, librarian. "Arlington organizations may be able to avoid serious conflicts if they will use it to check their plans for timing events, and we especially recommend this procedure now for groups planning programs of wide interest to be held in the spring. The calendar has been made up with the assistance of about seventy-five local associations whose officers filled in questionnaires. Any Arlington organization which may not have received one is invited to request a copy," said Miss Stromdahl.

With a page for each day, the calendar lists information on events expected to attract seventy-five or more people and about which the library has received information. Listings give names of groups, places, times of meetings, numbers of persons expected and notations as to whether or not the meetings are open to the public. As additional events are planned by groups it is hoped they will notify the library.

In addition to the Calendar, the Robbins Library maintains a file of club officers. This and the Community Calendar may be consulted by a visit or telephone call to the Robbins Library.

AHS Hoopsters Lose

Vin Govoni scored 27 points but Arlington High lost 81-69 to a powerful Brockton team, which is second in the Suburban League.

Govoni netted 11 field goals and five free throws to lead the Arlington scorers. Next in line were Ed Nagle and Bill Grannan with 11.

Paced by their two stars Sarantopoulos and Pearson, Brockton was on top all the way. Sarantopoulos scored 30 and Pearson got 25.

Arlington played the game without the services of Art Keete and part of the game without Peter Scully who suffered a sprain.

Not helping the Arlington cause any was the fact that Bill Grannan, top scorer, and Jim Driscoll fouled out and were no help during most of the last half.

Brockton was much the superior team using many of its subs in what could have been a runaway.

Showing up well for Arlington was junior Jim Gilpatrick, who scored eight points on four field goals after replacing Grannan. Also a big man in the Arlington attack was center Ed Nagle, who scored 11. Nagle is not the type of player that will score many points in a ballgame and thus his performance came as somewhat of a surprise.

But the big man for Arlington was Vin Govoni, who was given a tremendous hand by the spectators at Brockton. Probably the most consistent of the scorers on the team, Govoni came up with his high for the season, as Arlington notched their high point total for the year as a team.

"One trouble with the world is that so many people who stand up vigorously for their rights fall down miserably on their duties." — AO News.

Tina Noyes Wins Skating Title

Twirling, looping and jumping, 13 year-old Tina Noyes of Arlington, free-styled her way into the Eastern Woman's Skating Championship at Lake Placid, New York, Sunday.

Tina, in her fourth year of competition, placed in the compulsory figures on Saturday. These count 60 per cent of the total.

To overcome the leader, Tina put on the greatest skating exhibition of her young career.

Tina skates for the Boston Skating Club and is a four year veteran in skating competition. Last year, she won the National Novice competition and last month placed second in the Senior Women's class in New England.

Tina is a senior at Marycliff Academy in Winchester. Miss Noyes celebrated her 13th birthday with the biggest win of her career.

Red and Gray Jottings

by Connie Mugnai

Saturday, Jan. 13, seniors at AHS took College Entrance Examination Boards given at the high school.

Allied Youth sponsored an Allied Youth Night last Friday. The night consisted of a variety of song and dance numbers, and an amusing skit featuring a few of the club members. A former AHS student, Harry Howell, now at Harvard, was guest speaker for the occasion.

The proceeds from this AY Night will go towards the Northeast District conference to be held at the school in May. This year, delegates for the conference are expected from Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey, as well as New England.

Tufts College is sponsoring an engineering tour, which some students from Arlington High school, interested in Tufts' engineering program, plan to attend.

At a Dramatic club meeting, Mrs. Elizabeth Sampson, faculty-advisor, announced to club members the second act of "Our Town" as an entry to the Drama Festival sponsored by the Massachusetts Drama Guild.

This year the Festival will be held on March 24. The semi-finals of this contest will go on to the finals at John Hancock hall on April 6 and 7.

The Girls Club is planning a formal for February. The formal dance will probably be held at 1200 Beacon st. where the club held their semi-formal during the December vacation.

The Gilbert and Sullivan club held a regular business meeting recently after which try-outs for the "variety show" in the spring followed.

African Pictures News Editor Of Draw Praise Monitor At Club

"Africa," a major exhibition of magnificent photographs by world-famous photographers, on display at Boston's Museum of Science since last fall, will be held over until January, the Museum announced today.

Sponsored jointly by the Museum and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "Africa" has received wide acclaim from educators, international visitors, and social science students, among others. To date, some 60,000 people have viewed the gigantic collection, which features the beauty, diversity and vastness of the African continent, the dramatic attack being made to develop its resources, and the men and women engaged in this endeavor.

"Africa" was originally conceived and executed to time with the opening of the Eighth National Conference for UNESCO, with Africa as its theme, held in Boston last October.

There are 176 photographs in this exhibition, forty of them in color, and many of them mural size. All of the color pictures are by Emil Shulthess, noted Swiss photographer, who traveled 10,000 miles through the continent to obtain his studies. Other world-famous camera artists represented in the collection include Emil Brunner, also of Switzerland, "Life" photographer Eliot Elisofon, Mary Light of the American Geographical Society, and Marc Riboud, Ernst Haas, George Rodger, and Dr. Georg Gerster.

To gather these representative photographs, the Museum's Director of Public Relations, Miss Caroline Harrison, spent several weeks last summer in Zurich, Paris, London, and New York. Director Washburn, whose reputation as a mountain photographer is worldwide, collaborated in the final selection of material and the overall development of the exhibit.

The basic design was worked out by Ernst Verner Johnson, a recent graduate of the MIT School of Architecture.

PEE WEE HOCKEY

Hawks Nip Leafs, 2-1

A clutch goal by Bill Dwyer in the closing seconds of the game enabled the Hawks to nip the Leafs and remain on top of the league.

Bill McCaffrey gave the Leafs an early lead when he stole the puck at the blue line and moved in close to score. Brendon Donovan received an assist.

Bill Shea evened things when he took a neat pass from Tom Fitzgerald and blasted one into the upper corner.

Maroons Romp, 3-0

Roger DeStephano, with a goal and two assists, led the Maroons to a 3-0 shut-out.

DeStephano started the Maroons on their way when he picked up a loose puck inside the Canadiens blue line and fought his way into a scoring position.

Brian Titelash scored next on a corner shot after taking a pass from DeStephano at center ice.

Jim Largenton racked up the final goal when he camped in front of the Canadiens net and took a pass from DeStephano, Curley Elios was classy in the Maroons net and thwarted several chances.

Bruins Victors

The Bruins edged the Rangers 1-0 on an early goal by Ken Diskin.

Diskin took a corner pass-out from Bob Bartholomew and drove a whistler into the far corner. Great goal tending by Burke in the Bruins' net stopped several dangerous attacks by the Rangers.

Wings Roll, 4-0

The hustling Wings were too much for the inexperienced Rockets and coasted to a 4-0 shutout.

Bob Heaven opened the scoring for the Wings taking a pass from Bob Shea at the blue line and moving in close to hit the lower left corner.

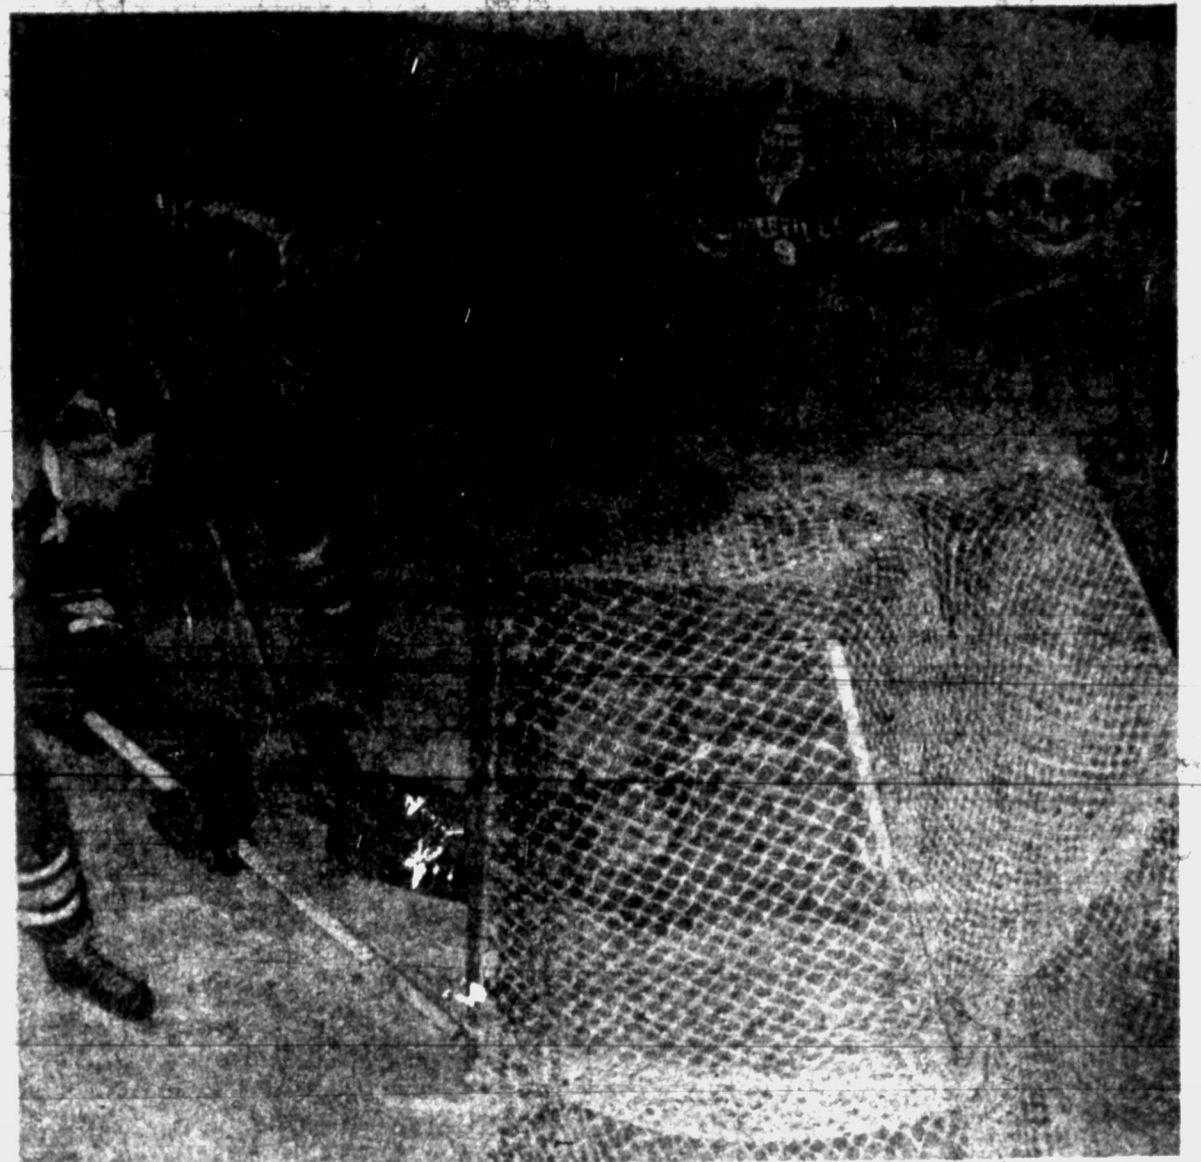

Jack Curtin scored the second goal on a neat angle shot. Bob Blouin assisted. Blouin then scored a solo effort.

Allosso Gains Fourth Shutout

Joe Allosso collected his fourth shutout of the season, making ten saves, to lead Arlington to a 2-0 victory over Somerville at the Arena, Saturday.

Allosso, who has the lowest goals against in the league, made ten stops against a stubborn Somerville team. The Somerville goalie Vin Ciampi stopped twelve in an evenly played game.

The first goal for Arlington was scored by Bob Fredo, unassisted. Fredo scored from about fifteen feet out.

The final goal for Arlington was scored by Peter Lax. This was a beauty. Sheer hustle was the factor behind this score.

Lax caught a Somerville defenseman loafing while clearing the puck, swooped in, stole the puck and rammed it home from in front of the cage.

Two goals were enough as the defense played a tight game with Allan Kierstead, Bob Carr, and Allosso holding off the Somerville attack.

With this win Arlington stayed within three points of league-leading Newton. In what almost amounted to an upset, Newton downed Rindge Technical, 2-1. Rindge tied the game in the second period with Englehardt scoring.

Rindge dominated the early minutes of the third period and it looked like an upset. However, Bill Cotter stole the puck and fired the game winner from 30 feet.

In other games Medford beat Cambridge Latin, 3-1 to regain third place in the GEL, and Brookline moved out of the cellar, edging by Waltham, the new occupants, 3-2.

St. Agnes Hockey

By Kathy Carney

It may have been chilly on Jan. 10 but it was hot on the ice as the Canadiens and Maple Leafs met in intra-mural competition at the M.D.C. rink on route 2. The Canadiens had this game well in hand all the way. Frank Callahan, their spark plug, scored three of the four goals.

Bob Curry scored the other goal.

Bob Bartholomew scored the only Ranger goal in the closing minutes.

The second game saw the Maple Leafs get off to a fast lead and hang on to survive as the Bruins pulled every trick in the book.

Powers and Heaven opened the scoring for the Leafs in the first period. Cuccia, Powers, and Grannan scored for the Leafs in the second period.

John Cummings scored for the Bruins in the second. With the score 5 to 1 going into the third period, the Bruins dominated the play. But fine goaltending by Eddie Walsh kept them to two more goals, by O'Connell and DePari. Bob Heaven scored again in the third period for the Leafs to end the scoring.

THE CHICKADEE

Oh, blithesome bundle of down and feather,
Singing in spite of winter's weather,
Cheer giving bird of woods and lanes,
Our hearts rejoice to hear your strains.

To the discouraged trapper on Labrador's shore,
Your merry song gives hope once more.
And the farmer boy, slow bound for school,
You make more willing to learn the rule.

For the downhearted tramp in the city's park,
Your cheerful tunes make life less dark.
To the nature lover in Carlisle Pines,
Your notes suggest these simple lines.

Of all the birds in God's great host,
You scatter sunshine by far the most.
We are deeply thankful to Him for thee,
Nature's own cheerful Chickadee.

PROMOTED

The Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife of the Department of the Interior's Fish and Wildlife Service has promoted George C. Balzer Jr. of Arlington to the position of supervisor of the Branch of Fish Hatcheries in the Bureau's Northeast Region.

A graduate of Northeastern University, Balzer's career as a fish culturist includes service at the hatcheries at Nashua, N.H., Ellbridge and Cortland, N.Y.

During World War II Balzer served two years as a lieutenant in the Navy's amphibious forces in the South Pacific.

Balzer and his wife, the former Eileen Kelly of Arlington, and their five children make their home at 10 Peter Tufts rd. He is the son of Commander and Mrs. G. C. Balzer of Overlook rd.

PACK 383

Cub Scout Pack 383 of Arlington held a combined Committee and Den Mothers meeting on Jan. 8, at the Prescott building.

Plans for a Derby Race for the January Pack meeting and the Blue and Gold banquet in February were discussed and completed.

Mr. Peter Bonitatus presided.

Miss Frances Musco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Musco, 35 Apache trail and a student at Albertus Magnus College, New Haven, has returned to the college from the Christmas recess. Miss Musco is a member of the Young Democrats and the National Students Ass'n.

Dog Attacks Two

A brown mongrel dog from Elmore st. attacked two women during the past week.

Receiving injuries from bites incurred by the dog were Dianne Doyle and Dorothy Franzosa.

Miss Doyle reported being bit on the right hip and leg. Miss Franzosa was bitten on the left arm.

The bite, received by Miss Franzosa, occurred after a restraining order had been placed on the dog.

ZONTA CLUB

Zonta business meeting was held at Winchester Country Club, Jan. 11, with Hazel Cheever, pres. in the chair.

Ann Mahon and Leona Goss were hostesses.

Grace Scott, sec., read a letter of resignation from Abbie Moynihan who is moving out of town; also letters from recipients of Christmas gifts.

Leona Goss will take the place of Alice Koford in dinner arrangements.

The chair announced the formation of a Zonta club in Tokyo, Japan.

Florence Roghaar read a humorous yet factual report of District I conference, Concord, N.H., attended by nine members.

Mrs. Ethel Bloomfield, 1260 Mass. ave., was greeted as a new member. Her category is electronics.

As it was "Amelia Earhart" meeting it was fitting that her sister Mrs. Morrissey be the guest speaker.

She had an absorbing story, not only of Amelia's interests in life but that of the recent excitement over the possible discovery of her remains, after all these years.

The freight disaster and what really happened remain a mystery. Miss Earhart's destination was Howland Island, only stopping place between New Guinea and Hawaii.

She was within a few miles when a ship nearby on radio heard her desperate cry, "I am circling and circling, can you help me, can you help me?" Silence was her answer.

Mrs. Morrissey showed many photographs of her heroic sister.

A request from Christopher J. Cammarata, 106 Spring st., that Arlington take initiative to claiming itself as birthplace of the nation along with information relative to the historical society and proposed Uncle Sam members appear before the Board.

RETURNS TO DUTY

P.F.C. Arthur S. Wyman of 50 Hillside ave., flew to France on Jan. 5, returning to the First Medical Group headquarters at Verdun where he has been stationed since May, 1960.

He is assigned as controller for the hospitals attached to the group.

Four more garbage complaints were placed before the Selectmen from people around the dump site. One, from Albert J. Musgrove, said that he literally had to leave home for the weekend because of the stench of the garbage.
